INFORMATION

on

IBSSA – International Bodyguard & Security Services Association

The official international association of private security, manpower and technical resources, technological companies and individual members of the profession.

The IBSSA is a non-profit international association involved in organizing, coordinating, giving assistance, technical help and development to its members worldwide in the field of security in all its forms.

The association was registered in France in 1994. The Honorary Founding President of the IBSSA is H.R.H. Prince Adan CZARTORYSKI BORBON. The IBSSA is represented today in more than 100 countries, through its members IBSSA represents hundred thousands of different security companies, security experts or organizations.

The information services of IBSSA:

The IBSSA publishes its annual official magazine "Bodyguard and Security", which contains articles about the activities of its representatives, member corporations, individuals, Instructors and Bodyguards as well as information about our associated organisations.

The IBSSA offers the services and possible partnership of its members to a worldwide audience.

The IBSSA holds a Congress each year. During the Congress a security exhibition might be organised. Members have the right to introduce their activities and products during the Congress or other such events.

The IBSSA Training Program:

The main training centres are located in Hungary, Israel, Italy, Belgium, Slovenia, Serbia, Switzerland, UK, Ukraine, Cambodia, the Netherlands and the USA. The training centres, recognised by the IBSSA, incorporate the expertise of international instructors and Master Teachers of the profession.

There are basic and advanced courses as well as general and special thematic such as shooting, self-defence, martial arts, specialist driving, close combat, escorting, first aid, bodyguarding, EP, etc. Training sessions are always available. After each officially organised training an internationally recognised diploma will be issued. Security guards, bodyguards and other experts or instructors are entitled to carry an IBSSA passport also.

Based on the same program (thematic) there are training camps organised in Romania, Russia, Great Britain, Florida, Latvia, Czech Republic, Gambia, South Africa and Hungary, or in case of demands in any other countries. The member country, organising the training seminar, is fully responsible and will ensure all necessary insurance that is provided for the members.

If more detailed information is required, please contact the IBSSA Headquarters or representatives of the Education and Qualification Department. E-mail: rondo03@attglobal.net

IBSSA International Organising Committee:

The IBSSA has its own international organising committee, which is a well trained team with vast of experience in organising cultural, sport, business events and conferences. It has worldwide representation with special security conditions and protocol services. The IBSSA international organising team may be hired or contracted.

IBSSA Quality Control:

The IBSSA has numerous teams of technical experts and these teams can test any security product. The product can be marketed more successfully if it has been tested by IBSSA.

- IBSSA will offer such products to other members
- IBSSA also offers the services of its legal advisors worldwide
- IBSSA offers to its members special insurance services

Among its members there are world respected technical and security companies, firearm and other accessories shops, well-known bodyguards, top international police officers and security experts.
