ANNEX 3

Extract from the report of the IBSSA Executive Committee Chairman

XXIII. Congress of the IBSSA and 8th “Partnership for Security” International Joint Conference of IBSSA-IAPA-IPA

29th April 2023
Budapest / Hungary

Given the global situation (energy crisis, armed conflicts, political and social unrest in Europe and all over the world), IBSSA not only managed to maintain its international position and professional reputation, the quality of services and education in the field of security, but also achieved great progress, both quantitatively in terms of the entry of new members, as well as qualitatively by the fact that it became a recognised contractor of QQAD (Qualification and Quality Assurance Department) of the European Research Institute for Strategic Studies, which gives a new dimension from the point of view of employment of IBSSA certificate holders.

I can assess the year 2022 as successful, but in anticipation of new, greater successes.

Prof. Dr. Bogdan Vukosavljević
Chairman of the Executive Committee
