

IBSSA International Anti-Human Trafficking Project (A Project of the International Bodyguard & Security Services Association)

Founded February 4th, 2017

The International Bodyguard & Security Services Association (IBSSA.org), based in Budapest, Hungary, is an international organization with a membership of over 50,000 located in 120 countries.

The International Anti-Human Trafficking Project was officially launched in February, 2017 at the IBSSA Annual Meeting, held this year in Sarasota, Florida.

Our Project is headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina and is headed by Karl de la Guerra, PPS, CLSS, the IBSSA Representative to the United States.

The IBSSA International Anti-Human Trafficking Project is active in 23 countries, led by Bureau Chiefs appointed in each region/country:

United States Headquarters: Charlotte, North Carolina with Bureau Chiefs located in Indiana, Florida, Georgia and California

Bureau Chiefs are also located in: Canada, Mexico, Argentina, Jamaica, Dominican Republic, Portugal, Angola, England, The Netherlands, Ukraine, France, Switzerland, Serbia, Croatia, Slovenia, Hungary, Israel, Jordan, Turkey, Cyprus, Singapore and Slovakia.

MISSION STATEMENT

The IBSSA International Anti-Human Trafficking Project is a private sector International network of business professionals that provide education to government and non-government organizations in the area of human trafficking and serve as a focal point within their geographic area for the collection of open source information pertaining to human trafficking. Through our collaboration with various government and non-government organizations around the world, our efforts as an international network to combat human trafficking provide valuable assets and information to counter this crime of international concern.

For more information contact:

Karl L. de la Guerra, PPS, CLSS

Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Karl de la Guerra, Inc.

Charlotte, North Carolina 28277

Phone: (704) 607-8762

karl@teamKDI.com

- IBSSA Representative to the United States

